

Texas Global Innovation & Intellectual Property Summit November 10, 2014 Austin, TX

Join USPTO Officials, Texas Political Leaders, Corporate & IP Attorneys, and Law School Deans at Texas 1st Annual Global Innovation and Intellectual Property Summit to be held in Austin, Texas on November 10th 2014. It is being hosted by the Texas Pro Bono Inventor Assistance Center, serving Texas and the South Central U.S. The speaker list includes distinguished leaders in Intellectual Property and the Texas Innovation Economy. In anticipation of your interest, I've included an agenda for the Summit, background information on the initiative, and a participation response form for your use in responding.

Of special interest, attendees may benefit by qualifying against Minimum Continuing Legal Educations requirements.

- Six hours of annual mandatory MCLE hours has been requested for this Summit.
- 1.5 hours of Texas Supreme Court-mandated hours of ethics/professional responsibility/participatory MCLE credit with the State Bar of Texas MCLE Department has been requested.

The event also benefits the Texas Pro Bono Inventors Assistance Program, which has received 175 applications since opening in September, 2013.

I look forward to your participation at the Texas Global Innovation & Intellectual Property Summit in Austin on November 10th 2014!

Sincerely,

Craig Enoch, Justice (Ret.)
Chairman, Texas AIA-USPTO Patent Pro Bono Program Steering Committee
